

"McDonald Hopkins creates litigation finance group"

Marc J. Carmel | Monday, May 6, 2019

Crain's Cleveland Business writer Jeremy Nobile looks into the potential for third-party financing of lawsuits in the wake of McDonald Hopkins announcing the creation of a Litigation Finance Practice Group that is among the first of its kind.

Nobile writes, "Cleveland-based McDonald Hopkins sees so much potential in the business of third-party financing of lawsuits that it's building its latest practice around it. As that sector sees explosive growth, expect other law firms to jump on the trend."
