

On August 1, 2016, the Department of Labor updated its employment law posters which covered employers are required to display in the workplace. The posters contain updates to the Fair Labor Standards Act and Employee Polygraph Protection Act. The new posters should be displayed as of August 1, 2016, in a conspicuous place in all of an employer's locations so as to permit employees to readily read them.

The posters themselves are available at the DOL's website.
