

McDonald Hopkins' Leaders in Education Series

| Friday, March 15, 2019

Cleveland Managing Member David Kall and firm President Shawn Riley each discussed McDonald Hopkins' commitment to helping improve education in our community and our upcoming Leaders in Education lunch series when they appeared as guests on WKYC Cleveland's Live on Lakeside.

David explained how in Cleveland, McDonald Hopkins is focusing its community outreach efforts on education by partnering with College Now and Say Yes to Education, and by hosting a Leaders in Education lunch series. The first of these programs will be April 2, with Eric Gordon, CEO of Cleveland Metropolitan Schools, as the guest speaker. Click here to register for the April 2 program.

Shawn discussed the College Now mentoring program and importance that mentors can have on a young student's life. He also touched on the firm's history supporting education and our upcoming 90th anniversary celebration. You can learn more at mcdonaldhopkins.com/mh2020.