

Attorney Maureen Martinez joins McDonald Hopkins

| Friday, June 10, 2016

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WEST PALM BEACH (June 10, 2016) – Maureen Martinez, a litigator with more than 19 years of experience, has joined the Litigation department at McDonald Hopkins as Counsel.

Based in West Palm Beach, Martinez began her legal career as an assistant state attorney for the 15th Judicial Circuit, followed by 15 years with two civil trial practice boutique firms in South Florida. Martinez has a diversified practice and extensive trial experience, including representing clients in aviation, construction defects, traumatic bodily injury, premises liability, insurance coverage disputes, product liability, business disputes, and multidistrict litigation. She has also spoken across the country on various topics of litigation, including discovery, spoliation of evidence, and construction defects.

Martinez earned her J.D. from the Shepard Broad Law Center of Nova Southeastern University in 1996, after receiving a B.S. from Florida State University in 1994. She is a board member of the Palm Beach County Hispanic Bar Association, and a member of the Claims & Litigation Management Alliance, Florida Association of Women Lawyers, the Palm Beach County Bar Association, and an Emeritus member of the Craig S. Barnard Inns of Court, having previously served on the executive board. Martinez also previously served on the board of the Palm Beach County Bar Association and as the chair of the Palm Beach County Bar Association Law Week Committee.

Maureen Martinez can be reached at mmartinez@mcdonaldhopkins.com or 561.847.2351.
