

CLEVELAND— The 17th episode of McDonald Hopkins' podcast series MH Business Exchange has been released.

During the episode titled "The Role of Fiduciaries: Who, what and when," Cleveland attorney Roger Shumaker and host Mike Witzke talk about fiduciaries: Who are they, what do they do, and how do they act? These questions and more are answered as Witzke and Shumaker discuss all of the various types of fiduciaries and their roles, from guardianships, to powers of attorney, executors, personal representatives, administrators and trustees.

To listen to this and previous episodes, subscribe to the podcast or sign-up to receive announcements when new episodes of MH Business Exchange are released, listeners may visit mcdonaldhopkins.com/podcasts.

MICHAEL WITZKE

Read More

ROGER SHUMAKER

With 40+ years of estate planning experience, I provide peace of mind by helping you design and implement an estate plan that will address your circumstances and objectives.

Read More