Practice Focus

- Data privacy and cybersecurity

Manisha Reddy is an associate in the firm's national Data Privacy and Cybersecurity Practice Group.

Prior to joining McDonald Hopkins, Manisha began her time as a data privacy and cybersecurity associate at a firm with over 800 attorneys throughout the U.S. and London. Manisha focuses on counseling business entities with data privacy law compliance and regulatory investigations prior to and in the aftermath of data security incidents. Manisha regularly advises clients of all sizes and industries through data breaches and potential data security incidents, where she works closely with local, state and federal law enforcement, forensic investigators and third-party cybersecurity vendors to offer her clients efficient and effective breach response services in compliance with various privacy and data security laws and regulations, including, but not limited to, the CCPA, COPPA, FERPA, GLBA, HIPAA/HITECH, and GDPR.

Manisha earned her J.D. from Loyola University Chicago School of Law in 2019. At Loyola, she was a licensed senior law student, advocating for children in court as a Guardian ad litem at the Loyola University Community Law Center Clinic. She received a B.A. in political science from Miami University in 2015.
