

The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation's ("BWC") Administrator/CEO, Steve Buehrer continues to put the BWC's Special Investigation Department ("SID") to work. SID is the BWC's department that is charged with detecting, investigating, and prosecuting fraud with respect to the BWC. Buehrer announced recently that another ten individuals were convicted of, or plead guilty to, fraud related charges in October of this year. The result for the individuals charged in such cases ranged from tens of thousands of dollars in fines and restitution to felonies. In addition to cracking down on fraud, Buehrer also publicizes the names of those found to have defrauded the BWC. The names and details of eight of the individuals who were convicted of, or plead guilty to, fraud related charges in October, can be found here.

MCDONALD HOPKINS

Read More