

Synthetic urine producer Dr. Greens Inc. must pay nearly $900,000 in attorney fees on top of $3 million in damages and interest already awarded following a jury verdict earlier this year that found the fake pee maker willfully infringed a rival's patent, a California judge has ordered.

U.S. District Judge John A. Houston said Monday that it became clear over the course of the case that Dr. Greens had engaged in "a pattern of gamesmanship to obtain an unfair advantage in the litigation."

Click here for the full story from Law360 \(subscription required\).

Spectrum Laboratories LLC, the plaintiff in this case, is represented by David B. Cupar and Matthew J. Cavanagh of McDonald Hopkins LLC and J. Christopher Jaczko of Procopio Cory Hargreaves & Savitch LLP.

MATTHEW CAVANAGH

Read More

DAVID CUPAR

I love innovation. Innovators hire me to develop creative IP strategies that align with their business objectives while minimizing risks and maximizing value

Read More